

Shine the spotlight on your city and community!

The advertisement for Wayne County features a collage of local scenes on the left, including a church, a bridge, a red train, and a school. Text on the left reads: "Located in the heart of Southeast Georgia and within minutes of major cultural amenities and Georgia's Golden Isles, Wayne County truly is where it all comes together." Below this, it lists "Working Features and Assets" such as "Golfing, hunting, fishing, and more" and "First access to major state highways." The right side of the ad shows a man in a suit and a map of Georgia with Wayne County highlighted. The headline is "A Natural Attraction" with the sub-headline "New direction, major expansion and downtown rising." It also includes contact information for "LOCAL LEADERS" like "SHERMAN BROWN" and "JAMES WATSON".

Area Spotlights paint the big picture and create a wonderful marketing tool to attract new business, new residents and tourists to the region. From small local businesses to large industry, education to recreation, healthcare to arts and entertainment, Georgia Trend shares your story with its readers across the state.
